

Revenue Assurance and Fraud Management.

With the opening up of the economy , there is an unprecedented growth in the communication sector leading to a potential demand for knowledge workers in the field of telecommunications.

Telecom Service providers across the world are grappling with revenue leakage and are constantly looking at a time tested method to contain this menace.

BSNL, being the pioneer in the field of telecommunications has experts in the field of Telecom Technology and operations who have been involved in maintaining large telephone systems over the years. NATFM offers high end training on this all important area of Telecommunications. The participants would get to know the latest world trend and strategies to conserve ensure revenue conservation and plug leakages . Practical visit to state of art telecom locations are also part of this course.

The participants will be imparted a thorough knowledge in the working of the telecom billing and accounts receivable management and techniques in plugging the revenue leakage.